

Games, Refreshments, Talent Show Planned by Seaside PTA

By VIOLA KLUG
FR 5-5928

The Seaside School PTA Carnival will be held at the school Saturday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. A number of games will be offered, such as ring toss, wheel of fortune, and others. The children will present a talent show, and a cakewalk, movies, country store, and a food booth. Badges, costing $1, may be purchased, which entitle the holder to all games and the talent show.

For further information, call either FR 5-6689 or FR 5-6729.

We are glad to welcome our neighbor Toni Staff and daughter Reggie, of 5714 Palos Verdes Blvd., home again from visiting friends and relatives in Rexburg, Ida. Reggie enjoyed her first long bus ride home very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Miller and son Michael, from Evansville, Ind., were houseguests at the Allen home, at 22634 Crosshill Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Welliver, and Kay, spent Sunday at the fair at Pomona. They left early and made a day of it.

There will be a combined meeting of the Elben Bowman and Millie Kreps Circles of the Missionary Society tonight at the South Bay Baptist Church on Sharynne Lane. The program is in charge of the Millie Kreps Circle.

There will be a rally of the Conservative Baptist Church tomorrow at the First Baptist Church at Montebello starting at 10 a.m. There will be a banquet at 6:15, and 7:15, the main speaker of the evening, John J. Olivera, of Portugal, will bring a missionary message. Arrangement for transportation can be made by calling Rev. George Cain at FR 5-5109.

On Thursday, the White Cross Society will hold an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. George Shockey, 102 N. Prospect Ave., Redondo, where they will sew for the missionaries. Ladies are requested to bring their scissors and a sack lunch.

Arnold Westfall of Michigan City, Ind., noted for his work among the children, will be speaker on Sunday evening. There will be object talks and extraordinary music bells, water tumblers, etc. Why not come out and spend the evening with us?

On Monday, Rev. Nelson, of the First Baptist Church of San Pedro, will start a two-week Bible conference, with special music every evening.

We are sorry to lose the O. Aldes, formerly of Reese Rd., who have moved to Costa Mesa recently, where Mr. Aldes will go into business. Mrs. Aldes was an elementary school teacher in Redondo.

On Thursday evening, Sept. 30, the neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Kimball, for a farewell party. They played ping-pong, tea cream and cake were served. Present were Messrs. and Mmes. P. Cockrell, K. Marshall, D. McCollum, R. Braiwick, B. Harland, B. Caldon, D. Stevens, and B. Harvey.

The Crosshill Neighborhood Club met at the home of C. Peterson, of 22720 Crosshill Ave., Wednesday evening, Sept. 29. The evening was spent in sewing and knitting. Cake and coffee were served by the hostesses. Present were Mmes. W. Clark, J. Reinhardt, S. Patton,

K. Buford, L. Fuceli, and R. Moser.

The Neighborhood Bridge Club of Linda Dr., in Allied Gardens, met Friday evening, Oct. 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Cambren, of 22832 Linda Dr. Present were Mmes. and Messrs. P. Baxter, J. Mullins, and O. Strehlow. Mrs. Strehlow won the prize. After the game, chocolate pie with whipped cream and coffee were enjoyed by the guests.

Mrs. H. Nelms, 5310 Linda Dr., entertained the neighborhood Canasta Club, of Linda Dr., Wednesday evening, at her home. The guests were Mmes. J. Ratcliff, H. Thompson, F. Parent, S. Briggs, J. Todd and guest Mrs. Todd. Refreshments served were pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee.

We are sorry to report one of the guests at the party, Mrs. Thompson, of 5314 Linda Dr., fell while attending a meeting at Seaside School. As far as we know she fell at the curb, chipping a bone in her foot, which is now in a cast.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. J. Todd of 5150 Carol Dr., who have come to make their home among us. Mr. Todd is an announcer at radio station KFI.

Mr. F. Parent and son Ray, of 5309 Linda Dr., with a party of three have gone deer-hunting in the High Sierras. From Huntington Lake, they plan to continue their trip by mule and pack horses.

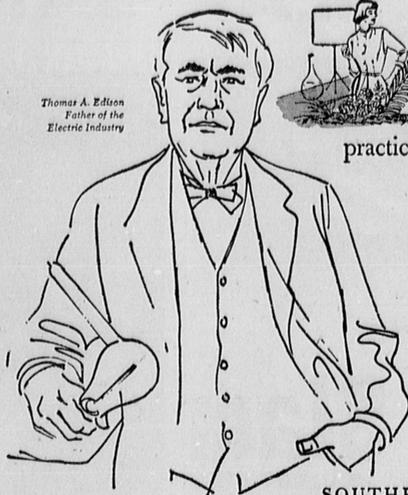

The stork brought a baby brother to Sharon and Patricia, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. Burch, of 5320 Palos Verdes Blvd., at Torrance Memorial Hospital, Sept. 6, who weighed in at 6 lbs. 4 ozs. They named him Frederick Loyd.

On Saturday, the neighbors and friends of Mrs. Burch, gathered at the home of Mrs. R. DePendis, 5409 Palos Verdes Blvd., and gave a stork shower in her honor. The table was decorated with storks, and blue and white streamers, a bassinet containing a boy doll surrounded with football, baseballs, and toys just for a boy, was one of the attractions. After the gifts from Mmes. F. Dussell, C. Meeks, E. Vrana, G. Camp, Anderson, N. Staff, and T. Burch, were opened and admired, lunch was served from a lazy Susan. Mrs. Joe O'Toole was co-hostess.

A belated baby shower in honor of Mrs. P. Sheriff, was held at the home of Mrs. P. Cockrell, 5012 Reese Rd. Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, by the neighbors on Reese Rd. The gifts were presented in a doll buggy. Before gifts were presented, several games were played. Mrs. P. Kimball was the victor in the observation game, while Mrs. J. Talbot identified the pictures, and Mrs. Nollenberger and Mrs. Kolleck won the baby quiz. After gifts were opened and admired, a light lunch of whipped cream salad and fancy sandwiches and coffee were served. Among those present were, Mmes. O. Aide, R. Harland, P. Kimball, L. Musket, K. Marshall, R. Caldon, D. McCollum, T. Kolleck, M. Hansen, R. Braiwick, C. Nollenberger, and L. Talbot.

Thomas A. Edison
Father of the Electric Industry

Join us in celebrating
Light's Diamond Jubilee commemorating
Thomas A. Edison's invention of the first practical incandescent lamp on October 21, 1879

Electric service will be seventy-five years old on October 21st. And for fifty-nine of those years, the Edison Company has been serving Central and Southern California. During that time, the Company's record of improvement and lowered cost has made innumerable changes for the better in your everyday living.
